Nutritionist Joy Bauer, a registered dietician, shared with Meredith Vieira of the Today show the time saving and health benefits of the 5 piece set Duo Combi Pressure cooker. "...pressure cookers enable you to cook in about 70% less time than conventional cooking methods, it also utilizes less fat and less oil and you get scrumptious dinners..." Pressure cooking retains vitamins and nutrients that are usually lost in traditional cooking methods and maintains a low fat content while rich in flavor. What a combination!

Simply load the ingredients, close the lid and cook delicious meals in a fraction of the time versus traditional cooking methods. Plus the reduced cooking time also helps to conserve energy. Hearty soups, stews, chili, and cheesecake are but a few of the many recipes that you can savor with your guests. What more can you ask for from a holiday gift?!
